5.1 Letter to TVRSSC Users

Recommendation:

That Council approve providing the addresses of the users within the SSP3 lift station to the TriVillage Regional Sewer Services Commission.

January 2026

Important Sewer System Reminder – SSP3 Lift Station

Dear Residents and Property Owners,

We are writing to address recent issues at the SSP3 sewer lift station. Your property is upstream of this lift station. There has been an increase in blockages and equipment failures resulting from inappropriate items entering the sewer system. The pumps at SSP3 have failed a number of times over the last 2 months due to improper materials in the sewer system, notably microfiber cloths and wipes.

We remind everyone: Toilets are intended for the 3 P's – Pee, Poop, and (Toilet) Paper. Wipes, including those marketed as “flushable,” should be placed in the garbage, not the toilet. The same applies to grease, rags, and any other materials aside from toilet paper. Even if a product claims to be flushable, it can still cause major issues in the sewer system. Only grey and black water should be entering your drains.

Please also note that connecting yard drains, sump pumps, or eavestroughs to the sanitary sewer system is illegal. These connections significantly increase water volume in the system, which can overwhelm lift stations and lead to costly repairs.

Is it worth the cost? In 2025, emergency repairs to the Tri Village Sewer System due to improper disposal cost $130,000—over $100 per household. These expenses are directly linked to non-compliant items like wipes and grease clogging sewer lines and damaging pumps. Continued misuse could lead to higher sewer levies and increased taxes for all residents. Please dispose of wipes in the garbage and place grease in a container before discarding it in the trash.

Your cooperation helps protect our infrastructure, control costs, and ensure reliable service for the community. Should you have any questions, please contact our office for more information.

Sincerely,

Tri Village Regional Sewage Services Commission

Distinctive Role of the Rural Alberta Sport Association

Championing Wellness and Inclusion in Rural Communities

Unlike provincial sport organizations that primarily serve urban areas, the Rural Alberta Sport Association is attuned to the unique challenges and opportunities that define rural life. While urban-focused organizations may benefit from established infrastructure and larger populations, the Rural Alberta Sport Association works directly with dispersed communities, focusing on accessibility and inclusion for individuals who might otherwise be overlooked.

Tailored Programs for Rural Needs

Instead of a one-size-fits-all approach, the Association develops sport and wellness initiatives that reflect the realities of rural geography and resources. This means bringing physical activity programs to rural towns, using local facilities, and collaborating with community leaders to ensure that every individual—regardless of background, ability, or financial status—can participate. By reducing barriers and providing necessary equipment, the Association fosters regular engagement that combats inactivity and supports healthy lifestyles.

Building Community Connections

Rural communities often share a strong sense of belonging and interdependence. The Association leverages this by encouraging collaboration among youth, families, seniors, and local organizations, building networks that stretch beyond individual towns. Through sport, these connections flourish, strengthening community resilience and well-being.

Prioritizing Accessibility and Inclusion

Whereas urban organizations may rely on centralized programs and advanced facilities, the Rural Alberta Sport Association emphasizes the importance of bringing competitive sport directly to the people—regardless of distance. Their commitment to inclusion means ensuring programs are affordable, culturally relevant, and welcoming to all individuals. By focusing on reducing geographic and financial barriers, the Association creates pathways for participation that are specifically designed for rural realities.

Continuous Improvement and Integrity

Guided by principles of safety, well-being, and excellence, the Association focuses on ongoing evaluation and local input to adapt its programs. Integrity and transparency form the foundation of these efforts, ensuring that all stakeholders are engaged in shaping sport experiences that truly benefit rural community.

In summary, the Rural Alberta Sport Association stands apart by rooting its work in the distinct fabric of rural life—building healthier, more inclusive communities not through urban models, but through local partnership, creativity, and a deep understanding of rural needs.

The Rural Alberta Sport Association engages the community by fostering genuine partnerships with local leaders, families, and youth. Rather than imposing external solutions, the Association collaborates with community members to co-create programs that reflect their distinct values, traditions, and needs. Through regular consultation and ongoing dialogue, the Association ensures that every voice is heard—especially those who may be underrepresented or face greater barriers to participation.

Community Engagement

By hosting community forums, workshops, and celebration events, the Association encourages open communication and collective decision-making. Local volunteers are empowered to take active roles, whether as coaches, mentors, or organizers, further strengthening the sense of ownership and pride within each town. These efforts are supported by building networks across neighbouring communities, allowing for resource sharing, mentorship, and shared experiences that enrich the sporting environment for all.

In addition, the Association recognizes the importance of visibility and presence. Staff and volunteers spend time in each community, attending local events and listening to feedback. This hands-on approach not only builds trust, but also enables the Association to adapt quickly to emerging needs and opportunities.

Ultimately, the Rural Alberta Sport Association's community engagement is rooted in respect, reciprocity, and a shared vision for nurturing healthy, active, and resilient individuals throughout rural Alberta.

Summary

Executive Summary

The Alberta Beach Multi-Sport Fieldhouse & Outdoor Sports Campus is uniquely positioned to become a flagship four-season sport, recreation, wellness, and tourism destination west of Edmonton. With a combined catchment of more than 1.4 million residents within one hour, the project represents a major opportunity for community revitalization, recreation, athlete development, health and wellness programming and regional event hosting.

The proposed development includes a multi-sport indoor fieldhouse equipped with indoor turf, courts (including pickleball, volleyball, and basketball), a walking track, team rooms, and flexible educational/programming areas. Future phases expand the campus with natural grass fields and an outdoor turf field. These fields would accommodate cricket, soccer, lacrosse, rugby, and football amenities. This structure supports local health and wellness as well as local recreation and outdoor pursuits needs. This facility would attract weekend tournaments, school division events, provincial development camps, and high-performance training.

To validate demand and strengthen engagement, a condensed multi-sport stakeholder survey will be conducted over the next six weeks across football, soccer, futsal, cricket, basketball, volleyball, lacrosse, rugby, pickleball, school divisions, Indigenous communities, health organizations, and local tourism partners. Data will inform booking projections, facility feature priorities, program design, and funding proposals.

Honourable Devin Dreeshen
Minister of Transportation and Economic Corridors
Government of Alberta
127 Legislature Building
10800 – 97 Avenue
Edmonton, AB
T5K 2B6

Dear Minister Dreeshen:

Re: Emergency Response Dispatch Practices on a Provincially Significant Transportation Corridor

I am writing to raise a serious transportation safety concern regarding emergency response dispatch practices along a provincially significant transportation corridor within Lac Ste. Anne County. Specifically, the current model does not provide for automatic multi-agency fire response for high-acuity incidents, despite the corridor's traffic volume, speed environment, and collision history.

Under the current arrangement, dispatch notifies only Lac Ste. Anne County Fire Services (LSACFS), granting that service discretion to determine whether Alberta Beach Fire Services (ABFS) should be requested. This approach introduces avoidable delay, limits early scene capacity, and creates unnecessary risk to motorists, patients, and emergency responders.

This practice is particularly concerning because Alberta Beach was advised that high-acuity incidents—fire service Delta priority and Alberta Health Services Red / Hot Response—would result in automatic dual dispatch. However, records obtained through a Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy (FOIP) request demonstrate multiple instances where Alberta Beach Fire Services was not dispatched to incidents meeting those criteria.

I wish to emphasize that this correspondence is not intended to criticize Lac Ste. Anne County Fire Services. The concern is one of system design, not individual performance. On major highways, minutes matter, and response capacity at the earliest stage of an incident is critical.

Transportation Safety and Borderless Emergency Response:

Alberta has already adopted a borderless, patient-centred dispatch philosophy within its emergency medical services system. Alberta Health Services states that its EMS dispatch system is designed to send the nearest available ambulance to a patient regardless of any geographic boundaries. AHS further explains that consolidated dispatch exists to ensure the ability to send the closest, most appropriate resource to respond to each emergency. This principle reflects what the public reasonably expects on Alberta's highways that the closest and most capable help is sent immediately, regardless of municipal boundaries. While this approach is well established for EMS, the current fire dispatch model on this transportation corridor operates in the opposite manner—placing jurisdictional sequencing ahead of proximity, capacity, and speed. From a transportation safety perspective, this inconsistency is difficult to justify.

Emergency Management Doctrine and Interoperability:

Alberta's emergency management framework reinforces the same expectations. The Alberta Emergency Management Agency prescribes the Alberta Incident Management System (AIMS) as the province's standard for emergency response, stating that AIMS is Alberta's prescribed command, control and coordination system for managing emergencies and disasters. AIMS exists specifically to ensure that emergency responders from different organizations and jurisdictions can work together using common structures, terminology, and scalable response models. Restrictive dispatch practices that delay the involvement of readily available resources undermine these principles and delay the establishment of unified command.

Following fatal highway incidents in Alberta, Provincial leadership—including guidance from the Office of the Fire Commissioner, under Fire Commissioner Spence Sample emphasized the importance of inter-agency cooperation and coordinated emergency response on highways. The expectation that emergency services work together, rather than sequentially, has long been understood as a provincial safety priority.

Highway Incident Management and Risk Reduction:

From a transportation perspective, rapid, well-resourced emergency response is essential to:

- Reduce the likelihood of secondary collisions
- Accelerate scene stabilization and clearance
- Support timely extrication and medical intervention
- Protect emergency responders operating in live traffic environments

Best practices in traffic incident management consistently demonstrate that longer clearance times increase exposure to secondary crashes, compounding risk to both motorists and responders. Automatic multi-agency dispatch improves early staffing, enhances traffic control, and supports safer and faster restoration of roadway operations.

Operational Capacity Considerations:

Alberta Beach Fire Services routinely has a minimum of six trained firefighters immediately available, many of whom are Emergency Medical Responder (EMR) qualified. In contrast, LSAC Fire Services operates as a volunteer-based service and may initially assemble only two responders, with additional personnel mobilizing after notification.

Allowing a service with limited immediate staffing to determine whether additional, readily available resources should be dispatched places unnecessary reliance on discretion rather than designed redundancy—a principle fundamental to highway safety and risk management.

Provincial Role and Request for Direction:

While fire services are municipally delivered, Alberta Transportation has a clear interest in public safety, incident management, and risk reduction on provincial highways. The Government of Alberta has the authority to coordinate emergency and essential services where public safety is at risk. Alberta communities are also explicitly encouraged to collaborate regionally and share emergency management resources.

Given the significance of this transportation corridor, I respectfully request that your office review the current dispatch arrangement and consider providing policy direction or guidance that supports:

- Automatic multi-agency fire dispatch for high-acuity incidents (Fire Delta / AHS Red or higher) on provincial highways
- Dispatch practices that prioritize proximity, capacity, and speed over jurisdiction
- Alignment with AIMS principles of interoperability and unified command
- Consistency between intermunicipal commitments and operational practice

I would welcome the opportunity to meet with you or your officials to discuss this matter further and to share the documentation obtained through FOIP. The current system introduces avoidable delay and unnecessary risk. It is my sincere hope that this issue can be addressed proactively—before a preventable tragedy occurs.

Thank you for your attention to this important transportation safety matter. I look forward to your response.

Sincerely,

Tara Elwood,
Mayor
Village of Alberta Beach
